United States, France Begin Talks on Most Critical Issue Blocking Affairs in Germany

Clayton Urges More Millions

Assistant Secretary of State William L. Clayton (center) turns to answer Rep. Sol Bloom (D-N. Y.) (lower right) during a hearing in Washington when Clayton urged action on President Truman's request for an added $1,350,000,000 for U.N.R.R.A. The hearing was before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, of which Bloom is chairman. (AP Wirephoto).

President and Byrnes Are About to Make Sweeping Review of U. S. Control

Washington, Nov. 15 (AP)—The United States and France have begun talks here on the most critical issue now blocking effective Allied administration of Germany: France's proposal for non-German control of the Ruhr and Rhineland.

This became known today amid strong indications that President Truman and Secretary of State Byrnes are about ready to undertake a sweeping review of American administration in Germany. Their objective will be to try to work out some means of preventing explosive conditions in the Ruhr from getting worse as winter sets in.

Mr. Truman scheduled a conference today with Byron Price, a special Presidential emissary who is just back from a study of the broad questions of relations between the battered German people and the American occupation forces.

Similarly the return of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has afforded the War and State Departments, as well as the White House, an opportunity for a further check on critical German conditions already outlined during the recent conferences here of Lt. Gen. Lucius Clay, Eisenhower's deputy, and Ambassador Robert Murphy, his chief political advisor.

Eisenhower himself, in a recent report from Berlin, stressed the gravity of the situation, cautioning that there may be open revolt in Germany in the months immediately ahead.

In the light of this, here are the top German problems which have been—or soon will be—brought to Mr. Truman's attention.

The effective administration of Germany, for weeks, this has been hamstrung by French refusal to agree on most measures for internal activities until they are assured of Allied support for their plan to put the "industrial" Ruhr under an international control and the equally important Rhineland under long-term French occupation.

On the fourth of these engaged in plan (A) dined with the President and advised him against a Japanese-American war and urged him to do the "introducing" at once between Japan and China. However, the President did not make known what he had in mind, according to these men, the attitude of the President is his usual attitude. Recently, when the President discussed matters with Lewis and settled the strike question, I understand that he did so on the advice of those individuals.

Those carrying on plan (B) included all of our proposals of November 20 into that of September 25 and after incorporating those sections in the United States' proposal of November 26 which are either innocuous or advantages to us—(message complete).

Throughout the messages from the Japanese contention that they weren't starting a war—that the United States and Britain were pushing them into it.

A December 7 message from Budapest to Tokyo said: "On the 6th, the American minister presented to the government of this country a British communiqué to the effect that state of war would break out on the 7th."

The Japanese consul at Honolulu was disclosed in another committee exhibit to have reported to Tokyo on December 6, 1941, that these vessels were in Pearl Harbor on that date.

Nine battleships, three light cruisers, and, in addition, there were four light cruisers, two destroyers lying at docks (the heavy cruisers and airplane carriers have all left).

The message, intercepted by the Navy, added: "It appears that no air reconnaissance is being conducted by the fleet air arm."

Notations in the exhibit showed this message was not translated until December 8.

This morning Seymour was represented by Attorney William R. Rieley, while the district attorney was absent.

Jap Reports To Tokyo Revealed

Japanese Give Report on Vessels at Pearl Harbor Dec. 6, '41

Washington, Nov. 15 (AP)—Japanese envoys in Washington reported to Tokyo the day before Pearl Harbor that they had been working with "influential" individuals behind their "frontal negotiations" with President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull.

This was disclosed today in the release by the Congressional Committee investigating the Pearl Harbor disaster of intercepted diplomatic messages sent by the Japanese between July 1 and December 8, 1941.

Committee Counsel William D. Mitchell officially disclosed the breaking of the Japanese diplomatic code in the summer of 1941 when he placed a 253 page printed copy of intercepted messages into the record.

Hundreds pressed for vantage points as the public hearings into the disaster opened in the Senate office building caucus room.

One "urgent" secret message to Tokyo dated December 6 read: "In addition to carrying on front negotiations with the President and Hull, we have worked directly and indirectly through cabinet members having close relations with the President and through individuals who are influential (because of his delicate bearing upon the State Department) please keep this point strictly secret." Up until this moment we have the following report:

"On the fourth of these engaged in plan (A) dined with the President and advised him against a Japanese-American war and urged him to do the 'introducing' at once between Japan and China. However, the President did not make known what he had in mind, according to these men, the attitude of the President is his usual attitude. Recently, when the President discussed matters with Lewis and settled the strike question, I understand that he did so on the advice of those individuals."

Those carrying on plan (B) included all of our proposals of November 20 into that of September 25 and after incorporating those sections in the United States' proposal of November 26 which are either innocuous or advantages to us—(message complete).

Proposal Is Made United Nations Handle Atom Problem; General Eisenhower Supports Training

U. S., Britain, Canada Would Have Group Control New Threat to World Destruction

Safeguards Needed

Secret Can't Be Given Out Until Nations Have Safeguards

Washington, Nov. 15 (AP)—Creation of a United Nations Commission to control the threat of atomic destruction in the world was proposed today by the United States, Great Britain and Canada as the best way to tackle the atomic energy problem.

President Truman and Prime Ministers Attlee and Mackenzie King made this known in a joint communique on their three power talks.

At the same time, they declared that the three nations, which alone possess the know-how of atomic bomb manufacture, would not share that knowledge until "it is possible to devise effective reciprocal and enforceable safeguards acceptable to all nations."

The commission which the three leaders proposed at the conclusion of their six-day conference on atomic problems would be charged with the duty to make specific proposals on these four points:

"For extending between all nations the exchange of basic scientific information (on all subjects) for peaceful ends."

"For control of atomic energy to the extent necessary to ensure its use for peaceful purposes."

"For the elimination from national armaments of atomic weapons and of all other major weapons adaptable to mass destruction."

"For effective safeguards by way of inspection and other means to protect complying states against the hazards of violations and invasions."

In a 1,000-word statement setting forth the results of their discussions, the three chiefs of state prefaced their proposals by saying flatly:

"We are aware that the only complete protection for the civilized world from the destructive use of scientific knowledge lies in the prevention of war."

No system of safeguards that can be devised of itself provide an effective guarantee against production of atomic weapons by a nation bent on aggression.

"Nor can we ignore the possibility of the development of other weapons, or of new weapons of warfare, which may constitute as great a threat to civilization as the military use of atomic energy."

The statement made a distinction between what was called the "fundamental scientific information" about atomic developments and "the practical application of atomic energy."

The three leaders noted that actually the scientific information "has already been made available to the world," and they added that "it is our intention that all further information of this character that may become available from time to time shall be similarly treated."

Obviously with Soviet Russia primarily in mind, they then said that "we trust that other nations will adopt the same policy, thereby creating an atmosphere of reciprocal confidence in which political agreement and cooperation will flourish."

But as for the detailed knowledge of practical application of atomic energy, the three asserted that should be kept secret until the world is better organized, through the United Nations, to receive it with strong assurances that it would not be used for destructive purposes.

The statement was issued by President Truman, Attlee and Mackenzie King at a White House press conference held about 11:10 a. m. E. S. T. The three completed their deliberations last night.

Shortly before scores of newsmen crowded into the President's office, several senators—including Chairman McMahon (D., Conn.), of the Senate Atomic Committee—filed in to witness the signing of the joint statement.

Present also were Secretary of State Byrnes, Admiral William D. Leahy, the President's chief of staff, and other officials.

As silence fell, the President arose behind his desk and told the newsmen that he would read a document signed by the prime ministers and himself.

Any questions, he said, would have to come later when reporters were familiar with the statement. He then read rapidly the entire text.

When he finished he held the document aloft.

Death Warning Is Issued to All Palestine Rioters

One Is Killed, 50 Hurt Today in Defiance of Curfew; Property Attacked

Jerusalem, Nov. 15 (AP)—J. V. W. Shaw, British acting high commissioner for Palestine, issued a "punishment by death" warning today to rioters in the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv, where street demonstrations broke out for the second day.

At least one person was killed and 50 were reported injured today as thousands of persons milled in the streets defying a curfew order imposed after last night's outbreaks which resulted in the death of two Jews and the injury of 27 persons.

Unruly crowds again attacked government property, stoned barricades and stormed against several British buildings.

The general disobedience of the curfew order appeared to be a part of the policy of resistance ordered by the secret Jewish resistance movement against continuance of the British policy of restricted Jewish immigration into Palestine.

But most Jewish citizens did not appear to approve direct attacks against British soldiers and activities by the British police.

The first casualties developed last night when troops of the British Sixti Parachute (Red Devils) Division fired to break up crowds.

The troops were withdrawn temporarily, but were rushed back into the city today when crowds stoned police trucks this morning and the police opened fire. Gunfire was continuing.

Shaw's warning was read in Hebrew at 1:30 p. m., over the Palestine radio. It said:

"Unlawful incitements to violence or disorder and all attempts to disrupt peace and the normal lives of the people will be punished with the utmost vigor of the law."

"Unlawful carrying or use of firearms, bombs, grenades or other warlike stores is punishable with death."

Indictments Are Placed

Washington, Nov. 15 (AP)—Eighty corporations and individuals are under indictment on charges of conspiring to fix unreasonable and non-competitive prices for artificial limbs. Announcing that the indictment had been returned by a District of Columbia grand jury, the Justice Department said yesterday it charged the group with violating the anti-trust laws in the manufacture, sale and fitting of artificial limbs for amputees, including war veterans.

The department said the alleged conspiracy "deprived the Veterans Administration of the opportunity to make artificial limbs for veterans and impeded the improvement of artificial limbs."

300 Persons Arrested

Rome, Nov. 15 (AP)—Police arrested about 300 persons were arrested today and hundreds of thousands of cigarettes were seized in a series of raids on Rome's black market.

Todd Will Govern Himself According To Appellate Case

Steingut Criminal Citation Is Reversed When Court Finds No Obstruction

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 15 (AP)—Decision on whether to appeal the Appellate Division's dismissal of a criminal contempt citation against Assembly Democratic Leader Irwin Steingut rested today with Special Prosecutor Hiram C. Todd and the extraordinary grand jury investigating the Legislature.

Asked if he would take the case to the Court of Appeals, Todd said "I don't know. The grand jury will reconvene at an early date and will be guided in its future procedure by the opinions handed down by the Appellate Division."

Todd made his comment in New York City after the unanimous decision yesterday which reversed a lower court order holding Steingut in contempt for alleged willful evasion of questions pertaining to personal finances, put to him as a witness before the special grand jury by Governor Dewey 28 months ago. The jury has produced one indictment and no convictions during that period.

The decision voided the contempt judgment, plus the 10-day jail sentence and $250 fine imposed last August by State Supreme Court Justice Daniel Imrie who held that the Brooklyn assemblyman had given "vague, evasive, contradictory and unresponsive answers" to questions by Todd relating to an alleged expense of $187,920 of personal expenditures over receipts by Steingut and his family from 1935 through 1944.

Presiding Justice James P. Hill, in the prevailing opinion, who termed the examination of Steingut "a fishing expedition," said the legislature had "answered the questions with reasonable accuracy, and in no wise obstructed the investigation."

Seymour Held For Grand Jury

Abduction Charge Placed Against Him; Was Married in South

Edward Seymour, 50, of Harding avenue, at the close of the preliminary hearing held in police court this morning, was held by City Judge Matthew V. Cahill to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of abduction. Judge Cahill said he would not fix bail, but that Seymour, if he desired, could apply to a higher court.

Seymour is already under indictment by the grand jury, and had been released from jail under a $5,000 bail bond. Shortly after his release, on October 23, he left Kingston. At the same time the 15-year-old girl in the case also disappeared.

This morning Seymour was represented by Attorney William R. Rieley, while the district attorney was absent.

County Clerk Has Gain in Business At His Offices

Annual Report Is Filed With Supervisors; Other Departments Give Accounting

An indication of the increased work which has come to the county clerk's office during the past year was reflected in the annual report of County Clerk Robert A. Snyder which was filed with the Board of Supervisors Wednesday evening.

There has been a large increase in the number of deeds filed, mortgages recorded and other documents recorded through the office in addition to the recording of service men's discharge papers.

Last year the total taken in for recording deeds was $4,871.95 while the 1945 total was $6,107.70. Mortgages recorded were also up about a thousand dollars with a total of $4,899.75 this year. Other documents and papers recorded produced fees aggregating $3,795.50. Docketing judgments and canceling dockets brought in fees amounting to $237.75 and copies and exemplifications of papers and dockets brought in $427.49, these two items were the only ones which dropped off and those items which dropped off only about $25 each.

Filing of papers and all other services brought a total of $1,795.75 in fees to make total receipts of $17,235.00 against a total of $14,214.75 in 1944. All fees have been turned over to the county treasurer.

In addition to the above, there was received the sum of $28,500.36, the net amount of recording tax on mortgages recorded in the office. This mortgage tax was less than in 1944.

In addition there was received $8,763.29 for motor license fees; $746.93 for hunting license fees; $425 for naturalization fees and $11 for passports.

Money paid over to the state for motor license fees amounted to $369,722.16, about $10,000 more than in 1944. To the State Conservation Department went $23,489.29 for hunting license fees, an increase of over $2,000 over 1944. For notary public fees there was collected $871 which was turned over to the secretary of state and $425 was paid over to the Department of Justice for naturalization fees, an increase of over $100.

A request was made by the Veterans Memorial Hospital at Ellenville for an appropriation of $2,500. Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

The City of Kingston Laboratory presented a report and requested $12,000 for maintenance from the county. This is the same sum appropriated last year. In the report it was stated that costs were going up, increases in salary would be required in keeping with the times and it was expected that the total budget for operation of the laboratory would be about $10,000 more than last year, but this would be made up by increased use and additional fee revenue.

Newburgh Grants Bonuses of $37,000

Newburgh's city council Tuesday evening included cost of living bonuses ranging from five to 10 per cent for all city employees. City Manager Joseph A. Fogarty said approximately $37,000 to meet this additional expense was included in the city budget for 1946.

In adopting the budget, the councilmen ruled out any special consideration for specific groups or individuals in whose behalf appeals had been made.

The only exception to the schedule of bonus payments, Mr. Fogarty said, would be in borderline cases, where some employees would receive the slightly higher increase which normally would apply to the next lower salary bracket.

North China's Case Called 'Delicate'

Japs Wait to Be Disarmed, Marines Await Orders, Chinese Clash

By SPENCER DAVIS

Peiping, Nov. 15 (AP)—Three months after Japan's capitulation, the situation in North China and Manchuria is described politely as "delicate."

Chinese Communist and Nationalist forces jockey for position and occasionally clash for control of territory which belongs no longer to a foreign enemy.

The Japanese wait for their armies to be disarmed and sent home but the progress still is far from complete.

Conference Awaits Industry's Word On What's to Come

Johnston and Mosher Say Management's Views Might Be Ready Today

Washington, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Labor-Management Conference today awaited a promised industry statement on issues facing the delegates as two related developments attracted attention. They are:

An assertion by a reconversion official that the government "can't possibly" grant at this time the full price increase demand of the United States Steel Corporation. Wage negotiations in the steel industry are stalemated over the price situation.

A suggestion from Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) for a new approach to the entire wage issue—based on industry's earnings and lower prices to consumers.

Business delegates to the Labor-Management Conference have remained silent so far on many points in debate by committees striking for agreement on methods to smooth reconversion's ruffled labor situation.

But both Eric Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, and Ira Mosher, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, have told reporters management's delegates might have their views ready today. They've been busily framing them at night caucus sessions after conference meetings.

Secretary of Labor Secretary of Labor George W. Taylor said the group's "making definite progress."

40 Germans Face U.S. Army Court for Dachau Brutalities

Dachau, Germany, Nov. 15 (AP)—Forty Germans charged with torturing and killing prisoners in the notorious Dachau concentration camp defiantly faced a U. S. Military Court today in a trial which may cost them their heads.

An example of rigid military bearing was set for the defendants by Martin Weiss, handsome black-haired S. S. officer who once commanded the horror camp where it is estimated the bodies of 200,000 persons were consumed in crematoriums.

When the eight-officer court called upon Weiss to identify himself, the German snapped to attention and spit out his name, age and other particulars in a sharp voice. He stared antagonistically at the judges and held his head high.

With few exceptions, the others imitated his demeanor. Each defendant was given a large white card bearing a number which will serve as identification throughout the trial. Lt. Col. Douglas T. Bates of Centerville, Tenn., heads defense counsel.

Prosecution witnesses include former inmates of Dachau brought back from seven countries to testify. The prosecution is headed by Lt. Col. William Denison of New York City, assisted by Capt. Richard G. McCuskey of Canton, Ohio.

The eight-officer members of the trial court will serve both as judges and jury. They previously sat in a case which resulted in the death sentence for a Nazi convicted of killing captured American fliers.

The oldest of the defendants, 74-year-old Dr. Klaus Schilling, filed an indignant protest through his attorneys saying "being treated as a war criminal." Accused of killing hundreds of inmates in malaria experiments, he claimed his research was "in the interests of humanity" and not connected with the war.

Dewey Is Strong With Erie C.O.P.

Governor Leaves Buffalo
With Party Unity
Well Established

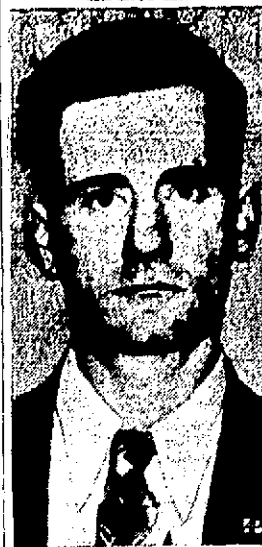

En route with Dewey, Nov. 15
Governor Thomas E. Dewey, watching for signs of his 1946 re-election chances, moves out of Buffalo today, apparently firmly established with the powerful Erie County Republican organization of Edwin F. Jackie.

Dewey's schedule for today, fifth of an eight-day Western New York tour included inspection of the State Institute for the study of malignant diseases in Buffalo, and of State Teachers' Colleges in Buffalo and Fredonia; luncheon with the Chautauque County Women's Republican Club in Fredonia and a reception given by county leaders in Mayville.
A feeling of friendliness and party unity accompanied the governor's two-day stop-over in the Buffalo area, where a large C.O.P.

plurality next year could mean the difference between victory and defeat for the state ticket.
And all indications were that
Jackie could "deliver" in 1946.
He was chiefly responsible for the Republican upset in last week's local elections, when the party took the Buffalo majority fight by 20,000 votes after 12 years of Democratic rule.
Dewey's principal political problem next year is expected to be that of securing a heavy enough upstate vote to over-ride the certain New York city Democratic plurality.
The Erie county leader reportedly had been at odds with the Dewey administration since he resigned nearly a year ago from the state chairmanship, now held by Glen H. Hedekapp of Lewiston.
Both leaders accompanied Dewey yesterday on a swing through Niagara, Orleans and Genesee counties, highlighted by the governor's first ride in a helicopter.
Alfred University officials, meanwhile, have announced that Dewey would receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at investiture ceremonies tomorrow for J. Edward Walters, new president of the university.

Murphy, N. C., is nearer six other state capitals than it is to its own—Raleigh. They are Atlanta, Montgomery, Nashville, Columbia, Frankfort, Charleston.

E. S. Pauley Doubts Japs Can Pay Even Occupation Costs

Tokyo, Nov. 15 (AP)—Edwin S.
Pauley, President Truman's representative who arrived in Tokyo
Tuesday, said today at a news conference he believed Japan would be unable to pay the cost of the Allied occupation, let alone "recurring reparations."
"The cost of occupation is staggering, it's so big," Pauley said.
Pauley explained that United States policy is to use Japanese wealth:

For occupation.
For the importation of goods which are the minimum to assure survival of the Japanese.
For reparations.
"I am not optimistic that there will be anything left for reparations of a recurring nature after paying the cost of occupation," he said.
Then, later, in answering a direct question, he said he did not think Japan would be able to even pay occupation costs.
Explaining "recurring reparations," Pauley said they were reparations which might be paid after the removal of tangible assets such as gold, silver and machinery which might be used in other countries.

Klein Is Injured When Hit by Car

Attorney Henry Klein, 69, of 132 Green street, was injured at 8:45 o'clock Wednesday night when he was struck and knocked down by an auto driven by Percy Burger of 10 Green street, at the intersection of Clinton and Albany avenues, according to a report made to the police by Mr. Burger.
Attorney Klein was taken to the Kingston Hospital in the Burger car when he was treated by Dr.
Chester B. Van Giesbeck for bruises to both legs, injury to his left knee, and a scratch on his right hand. After treatment Mr.
Klein was taken to his home by Mr. Burger.

In reporting the accident Mr.
Burger informed the police he was driving an auto owned by Max
Baker of 35 North Front street.
He said he had halted his car for the red traffic light at the street intersection, and had started his car when the light turned green, and that he had then hit Attorney Klein who was walking across the street intersection.

County Clerk Has Gain in Business At His Offices

The request was referred to the Committee on Tuberculosis Hospital and Laboratory.

District Attorney Haver reported that during the past year no fines had been collected through his office. No moneys have been turned over to the county treasurer. He also reported a $2,000 appropriation for office use which is given annually for office expenses. A balance in 1944 amounted to $398.28. This with the appropriation of $2,000 made available for 1945 a total of $2,398.28. Expenditures were $2,396.08, leaving a balance of $2.20. He asked the usual $2,000 be transferred from the Court and Jury fund. Filed.

Cashin Makes Report

A statistical report was made by Judge John M. Cashin on Children's Court. During the year there were 184 formal cases in which complaints were filed and 10 informal cases. This was an increase of 36 formal cases over 1944. There was an increase of 16 delinquency cases, 13 more neglect cases and 21 more adult cases than in 1944. Report filed.

A report was also made of the probation work by Chief Probation Officer Edmund U. Burhans. There were 174 adults and children on probation and 79 payment cases. He reported an increase in delinquency and support cases, the case load being 253. In his report Mr. Burhans asked that clerk assistance be given the office in order that the probation officer might devote more time to investigations. Much of his time is now taken by clerical and bookkeeping work. He also asked that a room be provided where private interviews could be had with persons coming in to make probation reports or discuss cases. A total of $4,819.36 more was collected this year than last year for support.

Judge Cashin also reported on the Probation Expense Fund. There was available in the fund a total of $842.95 for 1945 and the total expenditures were $47.64, leaving a balance of $795.31 as of November 1, 1945.

A report was made by the Department of Civil Service. There are now 125 employees in the competitive, 201 in the non-competitive and 368 in the exempt classifications. Appointments and promotions have remained on a temporary basis the past year in order that men in service may have the opportunity of qualifying for permanent appointments and promotions when they return. All appointments have been on a temporary basis, duration plus six months basis.

A report was made on Bovine Tuberculosis Eradication. During the year 4,275 cattle were tested for tuberculosis. The entire county and the city of Kingston is now clean. Tested clean herds in the county number 3,748. A report of Accredited herds showed 2,399 accredited herds in the county to date. During the year there has been 43 re-tests made. For Bangs disease 1,344 head were tested and 683 calves were vaccinated. The financial report showed expenditures during the year of $2,568.84 and there is a balance of $2,999.97. Of this $550 will be required to carry on the work until January 1. An appropriation of $1,000 was asked for 1946. Referred to committee on appropriations.

Bills amounting to $33 were reported by the committee on County Clerk and Surrogate and it was moved that this sum be assessed and levied over.

Bills amounting to $189 were reported by the committee on Painting, highways, and it was moved this sum be assessed and levied over.

Bills amounting to $520 were reported by the Committee on Tuberculosis Hospital and Laboratory and it was moved this sum be assessed and levied on the county.

Bills amounting to $474.42 were reported by the committee on Town and County Accounts and it was moved this sum be assessed and levied over.

The committee on Purchase of Rights of Ways reported that two parcels of land had been acquired during the year, one in the town of Rosendale and one in Saugerties for highway purposes. The total amount expended was $600. No money was asked for this work in 1946.

Forest fire costs also dropped this year. The total which will have to be raised by the towns of the county is $474.42, being one half of the cost of extinguishing forest fires. The state pays the balance. A wet spring resulted in few fires. It was moved that the following amounts be assessed and levied against towns for fighting forest fires, and that when it is collected it be paid over by the collector to the county treasurer:

Danville $3.75, Esopus $35.85, Gardiner $10.81, Hurley $11.22, Lloyd $1.56, Marlinton $11.48, Olive $6.71, Plattkill $16.57, Rochester $1.05, Saugerties $34.57, Shandaken $21.68, Shawangunk $12.29, Ulster $40.38, Wawarsing $11.50.

The lease for the Kingston Fair Grounds which is held by the State Department of Public Works, Division of Operation and Maintenance, was renewed at a rate of $20 per month for a year.

On motion of Harry Snyder the sum of $600 was made available from funds now on hand and not otherwise appropriated for care of a police victim.

Resolutions from previous session called up and adopted.

It was stated that the annual inspection of the Tuberculosis Hospital would be held on November 26 at 6:30 o'clock and the annual report would follow.

Chairman Haynes appointed on the committee for printing proceedings, Supervisors Schantz, Rittenbury and O'Neill.

The Board adjourned until 7:30 Friday evening.

Grounded Armada Finally Arrives At Stewart Field

Visitors Are Given Good Show as Treasury Fliers Go Through Their Paces

Stewart Field, Nov. 15 — Arriving just in time to provide a thrilling climax to Stewart Field's Air Show, the Treasury Department's Air Armada began landing at the airport at 1:40 yesterday afternoon, after spending three days grounded at Rome because of weather. The armada consisted of seven combat planes and a cargo glider which was towed to Stewart Field by a C-47 Sky Train Transport. The glider was released over the hangers and came to a graceful landing before the visitors.

Other planes in the armada were the B-17 Flying Fortress; B-25 Mitchell; A-26 Invader; P-38 Lightning; P-47 Thunderbolt and C-46 Commando Transport.

The navy planes which were expected for the air show did not arrive due to weather conditions along the route, however, plenty of thrills were provided by Maj. Robin Olds who put a P-51 Mustang through its paces over the field. He did Immelmans, slow rolls, flew upside down and performed other maneuvers.

As a special Wednesday feature, the visitors witnessed the broadcast of the program, "This Is Stewart Field" from the war department theatre. After the broadcast, "The True Glory," official United States and British motion picture record of the European war was shown.

Attendance figures for the three days of the show topped 4,500 with the bulk of the visitors coming Monday. Yesterday was the last day.

Bonds were purchased by Mrs. Emma G. Coulant of Marlborough; Mrs. Eva Murphy, Newburgh; Mrs. Louisa Hery, Middletown; Leonard Hornbeck, Cornwall; and the following Stewart Fielders:

L. Justice Haythorne, Maj. Clare Herbert, Master Sgt. Irving Livingston and Cpl. Edward Minges.

Certainly from the standpoint of economy, there is much to be said for including the Department of Justice in the new merger. Indeed, it is a good idea for the justice department to include the army and navy seem to be that it could be a big economy in money could certainly save a lot of money and might satisfy the growing bitterness and miscegenation which seems to have in military folks. It's long name would be sure but again in a spirit of economy and in keeping with the American fondness for initials, it could fit into the headlines: very much as J. & C. would be thus perhaps a big program would be solved and the country could get on with reconversion. Seal Sale Money Used Largely for Local Programs

A healthy young boy, symbol of the youth of America, is depicted on the 1945 Christmas Seals which will soon be sent you from the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association office, according to Harry S. Ensign, chairman. The Seals will be distributed throughout the county as part of a nationwide campaign to be conducted between Nov. 19 and Dec. 25 to raise funds for tuberculosis control.

"Funds raised throughout the country," said Mr. Ensign, "will be used principally to support local health programs. All but five percent is spent within the state in which it is raised. This five percent is forwarded to the National Tuberculosis Association, the parent body of 2,500 voluntary tuberculosis associations.

"Since tuberculosis is a communicable disease, it is more than a local problem and must be attacked on all fronts. Though local associations are autonomous, they may draw upon the experience and advice of the National and also benefit from medical research supported by the National. "The National Tuberculosis Association was organized in 1904 by a group of laymen and physicians who, alarmed by the tuberculosis mortality in this country, banded together to plan a campaign against the disease. At that time, tuberculosis was the leading cause of death. It now has fallen to seventh place, but still kills more persons between 15 and 45 than any other disease.

"A quota of $17,500 has been set by our budget committee for this county. This money will be used to carry on the mass chest X-ray survey in industries and schools of Kingston and Ulster county, for a full time nutritionist as well as for other health education and promotion work."

The 1945 Seal was designed by Park Phipps of the Chicago Institute of Art. In the traditional Christmas colors of red and green the Seal shows a bright young lad carrying a holiday wreath. A white house with a tall picket fence is in the background and opposite the youth is a red Double-barred cross, emblem of the Crusade for Health.

Special Services Held for Kiefer At Naval Station

Quonset, R. I., Nov. 15 (AP)—Special naval services were held for Commodore Dixie Kiefer, commander of the Quonset Air Station, who was killed in a plane crash near Beacon, N. Y., on November 11.

The special services were at the station auditorium with naval attaches and Quonset personnel attending. Commander Abbott Peterson, Jr., senior chaplain, read the scripture, and Lieutenant Commander W. L. McBlain, Catholic chaplain, offered prayer. Private services were scheduled this afternoon at the Kiefer home on the station grounds with a Christian Science chaplain officiating.

The body will be shipped by rail to Arlington tomorrow for burial. Floral tributes were so profuse that they already were being transported to Arlington. Kiefer was one of several killed when his twin-engine plane, en route from Caldwell, N. J., to Quonset on a routine mission, plunged into rain and fog-shrouded Mount Beacon. YES MAN
My name is Kenneth Carter. I'm the "Yes" man at Personal Finance Co....that is—I'm the man who likes to say "Yes" to requests for Personal loans.
You see—I'm the manager of our office—the man who's responsible for building up our business. The more times I say "Yes" to requests for loans—the more business we do. And, since making Personal Loans of $25 to $250 or more is our ONLY business—that's mighty important to me.
Therefore, if you need extra cash at any time—whether a little for a short time or a lot for a long time—you can depend on my doing my best to say "yes" to you.
Next time you can use a loan give me a chance to say "Yes"—won't you? I'll consider it a favor. SEE ME AT PERSONAL FINANCE CO., 2nd Floor, 319 Wall Street, or Phone me at Kingston 3470.

De la Vergne Quits As Commissioner

Attorney Has Served Since 1939; Comeau Will Take Place

Attorney Charles de la Vergne, United States Commissioner for the Southern District of New York, with office in Kingston, since 1939, has filed his resignation with the U. S. District Court, effective as of November 12. Commissioner de la Vergne on July 24 requested to be relieved of the duties of the office, due to the pressure of his private practice. He was appointed to the office, following the death of Commissioner Arthur C. Connelley, for a four-year term, on July 1, 1939, appointment being made by the U. S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. He was reappointed for the term beginning June 7, 1943. Attorney Martin F. Comeau of Woodstock, with office at 254 Fair street, Kingston, has been appointed Commissioner to succeed Mr. de la Vergne, by order effective November 13. The United States Commissioner is a judicial officer and exercises within limits the functions of a U. S. Judge. To him are committed by the federal courts some of the duties which otherwise would have to be performed by the court itself or one of the judges thereof. An act passed in 1940 conferred jurisdiction upon certain U. S. Commissioners to try petit offenses committed on federal reservations. Most of the duties of the U. S. Commissioner sitting in Kingston consist of acting as a committing magistrate in cases of crimes which violate federal statutes; also in issuing search warrants in federal cases. During the recent war years cases arising under the National Training and Service Act have been brought before the U. S. Commissioner acting in cooperation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Pay Boost Bill Approved

Washington, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Senate Civil Service Committee approved today a bill raising the pay of civil service employees 20 per cent. It left for further consideration proposals to raise congressmen's pay from $10,000 to $20,000, cabinet members from $15,000 to $20,000 and Supreme Court justices from $20,000 to $30,000. The bill provides a 20 per cent increase "for offices or positions in the executive branch." But Senator Mead (D-N.Y.) expressed the opinion this would not apply to cabinet members.

Briton Devises Atomic Vehicle, Little Disclosed

Ministry of Fuel Has Blueprints, but
Will Not Tell
Anything

London, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Daily Sketch said today that an obscure Briton had driven an "atomic powered" engineless automobile through the streets of London at ordinary speeds. No one in authority could confirm the report. The newspaper identified the inventor as J. Wilson. It said the vehicle's mechanism consisted of a mysterious metal box three inches in diameter which had been fitted into the place ordinarily occupied by a gasoline engine. An invisible stream of atomic energy flowed from the box, the newspaper said. Wilson has submitted blueprints of his invention to the Ministry of Fuel. The Daily Sketch said a ministry spokesman said the department was "interested" in the idea but could furnish no information on the claim. A retired British colonel, who was named as the go-between for the inventor and government agencies, said nothing more would be disclosed on the matter until a full announcement could be made by the government. W. Foster, parliamentary secretary of the Ministry of Fuel, and T. E. Naylor, also a member of Parliament, rode in the car yesterday, the newspaper said.

Krupp Trial Awaits Recovery of Aged Man

Nuernberg, Nov. 15 (AP)—The international military tribunal granted today a defense motion for a postponement of the war crimes trial of "dying" Gustav Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach until "his physical and mental condition permits it." The court of the United States, Russia, Great Britain and France ordered charges in the Krupp indictment retained in the docket on the possibility that the 75-year-old armaments maker might recover sufficiently to come to court. The tribunal quoted findings of its inter-allied medical commission that Krupp was irretrievably suffering from "senile softening of the brain."

Christmas Seal Poster

Christmas Seals Poster Is Given

Is on Display at City Hall
for Season

Mayor William F. Edelmuth yesterday received from Scout Chase Page of the Boy Scouts, a poster calling attention to the 1945 Christmas Seal Sale. The poster, to be displayed at City Hall, is one of 200 distributed to various sections of the city and county by Boy Scouts. The poster is an enlargement of this year's Christmas Seal and shows a typical American boy bringing a Christmas wreath home.

"It is a pleasure," the mayor told the Scout, "to accept from you this poster which will be displayed at our City Hall. Boy Scouts are doing a splendid service in assisting in a campaign to make our people more conscious of the Importance of protecting their health.

"Like the boy on the poster, the Boy Scouts of Ulster County are imbued with the Christmas spirit—the true Christmas spirit of helping others. They have enlisted in a campaign to get before the people of this community the facts about a disease which kills more persons between the ages of 14 and 45 than any other disease. "We want to make this country safe for the next generation. We owe it to our youth to support wholeheartedly the tuberculosis association in its efforts to prevent the spread of this disease. Each one of us can enlist in this campaign with the Boy Scouts by buying and using Christmas Seals."

Rotarians Hear Of Phone Service

Future Plans of Telephone Company Are Outlined

B. K. Rhoads, advertising manager of the New York Telephone Company addressed the Kingston Rotary Club Wednesday on the subject of the future outlook for telephone service. He was introduced by A. L. Harder. Mr. Rhoads described the communication equipment used during the war and exhibited some of the special equipment created for the armed services. These included sound powered telephones, which are used on battleships, spiral four cable which is used to provide quick communication for advancing troops and several other special developments. He went on to say that the telephone industry has now started to install telephones faster than the demand and the number of deferred applications is rapidly decreasing. Future plans of the Telephone Company are first to catch up on the deferred applications and provide service for anyone who wants it. The restoration of plant margins and the replacement of temporary expedients caused by war shortages are other things planned for the near future. Other improvements to be looked forward to, involve new developments in rural service, a conversion of the program to convert systems to dial service, long distance dialing by both operators and customers, and an extension of public services such as overseas service, service to ships and motor vehicles.

THE NEW 1946 Cadillac

More Beautiful and Luxurious ... AND POWERED BY THE GREAT VICTORY ENGINE

THERE IS BIG NEWS about Cadillac this year. For Cadillac has really been improved for 1946. Not just in styling—although the 1946 Cadillac is far more beautiful in every way. Not just in comfort and luxury—although here, too, Cadillac has made great strides... Cadillac's improvement is basic and fundamental! Cadillac built its world-famous engine and transmission for the Armed Services as power units for tanks and other motorized weapons. All during the war, while no passenger cars were being built anywhere, Cadillac's engine assembly line continued to roll. And what is even more important—improvement, too, went steadily ahead. The engine and transmission... which contributed so much to Allied victory... were actually improved more in four years of war than would have been normal in four years of peace! Cadillac not only had the world's battlefields as a testing ground—but the technical staffs of the army and navy were available as consultants... What an engine this is now! And what a transmission the new Hydra-Matic is! You've never experienced anything even remotely like this "power train" for smoothness, quietness, and quickness of acceleration... Improvement, in fact, is found throughout the car. Comfort is greater, handling is easier, roadability is better. Likewise, there is new interior luxury. Wherever you look, in fact, you will be conscious of a new Standard of the World... But the really vital improvement is mechanical. You'll have to take the wheel of this new Cadillac to experience fully what has happened. Do this as soon as you can... And get your name on the list for the earliest possible delivery.

Tribute Paid to Red Cross Home Service Units

Addressing the opening session of the American Red Cross national committee on volunteer service, which is meeting this week in Washington, D. C., General George C. Marshall paid tribute to the work done by Red Cross Home Service units during the war. Citing the volume of mail from servicemen and their families that comes directly to him or is diverted to him by members of Congress, General Marshall said: "For handling these letters I always need Red Cross Home Service units throughout the country and overseas. . . I don't have to tell you of the appreciation of them."

Mrs. Ethel K. Wood, director of Home Service in the Ulster County Chapter of the American Red Cross, pointed out today that from the outbreak of hostilities in December 1941, until August 1945, the local Red Cross has handled over 7,188 cases involving servicemen and their families, and that of these, 4,000 were cases of overseas servicemen who were involved in the war, according to Mrs. Wood. Since over 800 cases were handled since V-J Day, most of them related to assistance to veterans in adjusting to the various problems of civilian life.

Red Cross Home Service work is done for both servicemen overseas and their families at home by trained social workers and by volunteer assistants. One of the principal jobs of the Red Cross during the war and since has been maintenance of the servicemen family contacts.

General Marshall said, "The integration of Red Cross in the war effort is very American." He pointed out that the strength of the Army is measured not by numbers or by weapons, but by its morale. "And here," he said, "is where the Red Cross has played a most important part."

Retail Survey Facts

Series of Articles Giving Interesting Facts Brought Out in Retail Buying Survey of Kingston District

(Seventh Article)

There are probably few, if any, newspapermen of experience, who are not well aware of the fact that the average reader has pronounced views on just how a newspaper should be edited. Friend reader seems to feel pretty thoroughly convinced that, given the opportunity, he could produce a paper that would be a "humdinger." It would feature just the right kind of news; the right kind of "comics"; the right kind of special features and articles; the right kind of "politics"—or, perhaps, none at all; the right kind of editorials, and so on.

Sometimes men who have such pronounced ideas have even gone so far as to try them out and have thereby gained a liberal education—at considerable expense.

Considering the above, readers of The Freeman, many of whom doubtless have experienced feelings such as those described, should be interested in some facts brought out regarding readership preference, in the survey recently conducted by Richard Foster for The Kingston Freeman, which covered 1,053 families and surrounding communities, in which The Freeman is a daily visitor.

Previous articles commenting on the tabulated results of this survey have dwelt upon the opinions expressed about the Kingston retail district. These reviews covered opinions as to Kingston banks; theatres; dry cleaning and beauty establishments; shopping in and outside Kingston and what was purchased; what influences people in making a choice of stores; what were the post-war prospects for building new homes—when they would be built, what would be built, and what price would be paid; what other things, besides homes, these people expected to buy as soon as they were available, etc.

Readership Preference Survey

In addition to this business, or shopping district survey, a section of the questionnaires was given over to questions regarding readership survey. Members of the family were asked to give their preferences for the various classes of news stories, features, comics, sports, etc., carried by The Kingston Daily Freeman.

Mr. Foster has compiled extensive tables on the results of this readership survey, his figures giving opinions on the various features, not only of the men and women of the family, but also the boys and girls. In addition he has followed the system used in the retail shopping district tables, of classifying the answers as given by four family income groups, and as coming from city or country readers.

The first question was "What types of news interest you and your family most?"

Space will not allow reproduction of the tables as a whole, but the following, expressed in percentages, gives the preference of the city readers, the country reader and the "grand overall total" of preference for some 18 different classifications of news:

City	Country	Overall
Local News	61	62
War	56	52
Theatres	51	44
National	45	45
Advertisements	44	47
Deaths	41	41
Church	41	39
Radio	42	36
Society	40	38
Personals	39	36
Births	37	36
Schools	37	33
Want Ads	36	37
County	32	47
Sports (Local)	34	33
Political	31	33
Sports (National)	29	28
Business and Industry	29	31
Legal	14	16

Preference by Classes
From the tables showing preferences for these various classes of reading matter under the headings of "adults" and "young folks" and as between the city and the country survey, a few of the leaders (in their order) in each group is given:

City readers—Young Folks: Theatres, Schools, Local News, Radio, Local Sports, War News.

City readers—Adults: Local News, War News, National News, Advertisements, Deaths, Church News.

Country readers—Young Folks: Theatres, Local News, Local Sports, Radio, Schools, War News, Church News.

Country readers—Adults: Local News, War News, County News, Advertisements, National News, Deaths, Births, Church News.

The highest reader percentage for any single type of news was registered by men readers and was for war news. The percentage was 77 per cent and was the same for men readers in both the city and country survey. The second highest percentage was for local news, also registered by men readers—71 per cent in the city and 74 per cent in the country. In the final overall tabulation war news was dropped to second place by the vote of the young folks and to a lesser degree by the women's vote.

For the women the highest percentage for any single type of news was 69 per cent. It was registered by women readers in the country survey and their top choice was the Local News.

North China's Case Called 'Delicate'

patiently for orders to return home and frequently wonder what brought them to China in the first place.

Some 100,000 Koreans in North China are waiting repatriation. Small numbers of German nationals know that eventually they will be sent to the Reich. They await the day with mixed emotions.

Over all hangs the threat of full scale civil war. Thus far the Chinese civil strife has been more a battle of wits and maneuver, more a paper offensive of rumors and reports than actual pitched engagements.

But all elements of a long and bloody campaign are here. The Communists, who have a strong hold on six provinces, feel they must fight to survive. Central government forces feel they must exterminate all obstacles in the path of a unified China. How far these two forces will go in settling their differences by arms depends upon negotiators who will meet in Chungking November 20.

Each day in the vernacular press there are long reports of trouble throughout the provinces of Shantung, Hopei, Shansi, Honan, Szechuan and Chahar. It is evident that the Communists seized the initiative and had their armies in motion before the Nationalist troops were fully deployed to the north.

Destruction Balks Chiang

Destruction of vital links in every major railroad from Central to North China by Communist troops and villagers in the areas they freed from the Japanese undoubtedly worked to the greatest disadvantage of troops of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek. Nationalist troops on the other hand have the morale value of 60,000 American marines present in the Peiping, Tientsin and Tsinan areas of North China and the assistance of a United States troop carrier squadron in flying two armies north from Hankow and Shanghai. In addition, the U. S. 7th Fleet provided transportation to more Nationalist troops for landings in North China.

There is no question but that the great delay in disarming Japanese troops in Peiping has provided the Nationalist forces with additional power in opposing the Communists. While accurate figures are difficult to obtain, it is reliably estimated that no more than 10,000 Japanese have been disarmed in the Peiping regional area, which formerly was the headquarters for Japan's North China expeditionary force.

On at least one occasion, it was verified by this correspondent, Japanese troops and American marines stood guard duty together on Peiping's west airfield when it was reported that 300 Chinese Communist troops were approaching. The Communists never put in an appearance.

Observers believe that the conciliation meeting in Chungking next Tuesday, with orders given on both sides to cease fire and withdraw from the railroads which will be placed under police protection, will be the last opportunity to settle China's largest problem without a showdown battle.

If it fails, it is altogether possible that war and bloodshed will continue to be this nation's way of life, as it has been for so many years.

U. S., France Begin Talks on Issue

get a full Allied policy decision. The French are conducting simultaneous talks on the subject with the British at London and with the Russians at Moscow.

Meanwhile, the urgently needed creation of a central economic agency for all of Germany is being held up. So are the problems of German exports and imports provided for in the Potsdam policy statement which governs Russian, British, French and American activities in Germany.

Food. The German people now are getting about 1,500 calories a day although experts in Germany recently sent word here that a minimum of 2,000 calories is needed. The situation is linked to the failure of the Allied Control Council at Berlin to create a central economic agency which could operate between Germany and the outside world and also among the separate occupation zones.

The question of what to do about destroying German industry. This issue has reached a critical point. The Potsdam decision calls for destroying or removing as reparations all German war-making industries. Some plants fall clearly in this category, some clearly are in the category of peaceful manufacture, but in between is the great bulk of German industry. Particularly in the British and American zones the question is how to decide which plant is potentially a war factory.

Civilian control. There is an increasing demand among insiders for the President to speed the replacement of the military administration of Germany. "This would not mean the end of an army of occupation but merely that the top echelon would be civilians rather than military."

Recent information from official sources in Germany is that the military government is badly scarred in the red tape of military procedures and is completely lacking in any flexibility with which to meet day to day emergencies.

Few Civil Service Jobs

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 15 (AP)—The Democratic State Committee cautioned returning servicemen and women not to become overly enthusiastic about civil service employment opportunities in Pennsylvania. In a statement yesterday the committee pointed out that under the 1941 legislation there will be no permanent civil service appointments until "the end of the duration and six months thereafter." When the end of the duration will be declared, said the committee, "no one in the civil service knows."

Central Hudson Files Lower Rate Schedule

The Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation has just filed with the Public Service Commission a new electric rate schedule, effective January 1, 1946, which will reduce electrical rates in the territory served by the company by $210,000 per year.

These new rates are made possible at this time by the reduction in Federal taxes, which will become effective January 1, 1946, as a result of the new Federal Tax Legislation recently signed by President Truman.

Under the new rates proposed by the company, most residential and commercial customers will benefit.

It costs approximately $1,000 a day to feed the U.S.S. Missouri's crew of 2,000 or more men, who, eating in a number of cafeterias aboard, consume more than seven tons of food daily. More than 70,000 candy bars are sold to the men each month.

After School Snack

If you want to direct your children's after school eating, mix up a tasty spread ahead of time and keep it temptingly on hand in the refrigerator. Recommended popular with small fry is the taste-melody pictured here. This consists of "Dutch process" cocoa, peanut butter, honey, and margarine or butter. All are perfect flavor partners, texture complements, nutritional team mates.

Next time your youngsters dash home from school ravenous as locusts, be ready for the onslaught. Have the refrigerator stocked in advance with the makings of between-meal snacks. Such forethought will serve a dual purpose: It will prevent the ice box being stripped bare by predatory eaters; and it will guarantee your small fry stocking-up on foods that fortify them.

Provide flavors they like and the controlled-eating will take care of itself. For instance, chocolate and nuts are two of childhood's favorite flavors. So cash in on their popularity by blending a sandwich spread of cocoa, peanut butter, honey, and margarine or butter.

This novel mixture is creamy smooth and luscious as a candy frosting which spread on graham crackers. It has nutritional merit, too. The peanut butter provides protein. Honey is an energy building sweet. Butter or margarine contributes vitamins and minerals. And cocoa will give the melodiously chocolate flavor children so for if you use the rich, "Dutch process" kind, newly available in many of our markets.

Peanut Chocolate Spread
2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine
3 tablespoons cocoa
1/3 cup honey
3/4 cup peanut butter
Melt butter. Add remaining ingredients and blend well. Spread between vanilla wafers or graham crackers. Yield: 1 1/2 cups.

SHOKAN

Shokan, Nov. 14—Mrs. Robert Bostick, the former Lois Jones is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jones of the mountain road.

Mrs. Barbara Phillips and daughter, Genevieve, and Miss Genevieve Rhinehart of Mineola spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin VanSteenburgh.

The edges of the county road in the vicinity of the Ashokan ball field have been scraped and the dirt was used to widen the road at the sharp curve where the highway crosses the Tonche brook.

Martin Retting and family have removed to a house in West Hurley for the winter months.

Mrs. E. Hansen has returned to Brooklyn following a sojourn at her place in the village center.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Every of Richmond Hill, summer occupants of the James Carpenter bungalow, have bought the James Rupp place on VanSteenburgh Hill. The property a century ago was a part of the John G. DuBois farm, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin VanSteenburgh. Mr. DuBois was a grandfather of Mrs. VanSteenburgh and a great-grandfather of Mrs. Every and Mrs. Charles Sickler. Mr. Every, a former West Hurley resident, is mail clerk at the Hotel Commodore in New York city.

Nov. 14, 1893: Board of Supervisors' report on town allowances listed 13 North Olmsted residents as fire fighters during the year. Those who helped put out the spectacular forest fire on Tice TenEyck Mountain were the following: Cyrus and Hiram Cudney, James Buley, Daniel and Alonzo Secor, Alva and Elva H. Bogart, Robert and Edwin D. Secor, Henry Bogart and Jonathan, Alonzo and Peter J. Winchell. Of these, E. D. Secor survives and still resides in the mountain section. Older readers will recall this great fire on "Old Tice" which at night was visible over a large part of Ulster county.

Paul James of the corner store is getting out a supply of firewood along the Ridge road.

George E. Wilber, well known West Hurley surveyor, and his lineman, Eugene Ostrander, were running boundary lines in this section last Thursday and Friday.

"George Ed." in the course of his long civil engineering experience has been atop of every mountain in the Catskills.

Miss Eva Cox, who was employed at the Byrne boarding house during the summer months, is now a member of the culinary staff at Pheasant Inn on Route 28.

P.F.C. Alf Berg is spending some time at his home near the Shokan schoolhouse. The local soldier while stationed in Norway paid a visit to the home of his grandparents in that country.

Improvements at the Little Tonche Mountain place of George W. Pratt, Highland lumber dealer, this year include a swimming pool which is located in the hillside north of the house and is fed by two good springs. The Pratt property, long home of the late Elva H. Bogart of Kingston, commands one of the best views of the Ashokan Reservoir and southern Ulster county.

Seamen Eddie and George Secor, sons of Mrs. John Secor, are home on a 30-days leave after serving in Pacific waters. Eddie arrived at San Francisco on the Battleship Wisconsin from Japan while George served on a submarine during the war. Both young men were students at Kingston High School before joining the navy.

Shokan residents elected to town offices last Tuesday were: Earl Brundage, collector; Grant Avery, town superintendent; Homer Markle, Jr., assessor; and Minnie Adsit, school director. Largest majority at the Olive district No. 1 polls was that of John Marshall, Republican candidate for town clerk, whose lead was 123 votes. The only Democratic majorities here were Justus North, 12; Grant Every, 21; and Minnie Adsit, one vote. The 291-vote on town clerk candidates was the maximum here for a total registration of 425 names.

All planning to attend a performance of "Inconspicuous" annual senior play, at Kingston High School Friday or Saturday night are requested by the class to be in their seats promptly at curtain time, 8:15 p. m. Because of the nature of the first scene in the play no one will be seated at that time and the auditorium doors will be closed. Shop in Garden Will Close Soon

The picturesque Shop in the Garden at Stone Ridge, which to date has been serving the public for over 17 years, will close its doors to the public at the end of the year. Its co-hostesses, Miss Anna Budenbach and Miss Katharine Hushon, will resume the role of hostesses in the old stone house—one of the oldest landmarks in this vicinity—with its outstandingly beautiful gardens which they have heretofore shared with the public. This small and distinctive enterprise, which is slated soon to pass into mere legend in the annals of Ulster county, has played a real part in putting Stone Ridge definitely on the map of Ulster county. In the past 10 years its main attraction feature has been the circulation of a postal card with road-map imprint. This imprint shows very clearly that Ulster county "all roads lead" to Rome, but to the Shop in the Garden. No one will challenge its earned prestige on the Tea Cup Map of Ulster county. The Shop in the Garden has served a vital purpose. Wedding, birthday, Christmas and shower gifts have been available at short notice to the immediate neighborhood and long-distance orders have been filled with very personal attention. Its clientele has been so personal that Miss Budenbach and Miss Budenbach have maintained a personal finger upon each and every customer's pulse of choice. For the final six weeks of this year, Miss Budenbach and Miss Budenbach will be "at home" as usual at the Shop in the Garden, but from now on their handclasp of welcome to patrons will also be a preview of farewell.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post
(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

TELEPHONE EAVESDROPPING

A young girl writes me: "Every time I talk to a friend on the telephone, an older member of my family picks up the extension and listens in. She tells me it is her right and that I shouldn't have any secrets. It is not that I have secrets, Mrs. Post, but I hate the feeling of having somebody listening in! Will you please print in your column whether she is in the right?"

To listen in on anyone's telephone conversation, even though it be that of the youngest member of the family, is an unthinkable breach of courtesy—and no more excusable than the behavior of a neighbor who makes a practice of eavesdropping on a party line. As a matter of fact, every well-bred person who accidentally picks up the telephone and hears people talking instinctively hangs up.

Why You Can Be Enough

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you tell me if we were wrong not to give traveling expenses to an out-of-town clergyman who came to marry us? He and his wife are friends of our family and drove several hundred miles and stayed at our house. They left for home after the reception. Inasmuch as the groom paid the fee (and had to give one also to the clergyman of our church, who assisted our friend), he could not afford to give more than $5 to our own pastor and $10 to the visiting one. Answer: Considers to be said, I am sure they neither expected nor would have wanted you to do more.

Rehearsal Is Seldom a Party

Dear Mrs. Post: When there are to be only a best man and a maid of honor in the wedding party in addition, of course, to the principals, who should be invited to the rehearsal party? Answer: At such a small wedding, I don't know why you would have a rehearsal at all. None are expected to go to the rehearsal except those who are to take part and sometimes a few of the immediate family of the bride and bridegroom. Very often they have a party after the rehearsal and whoever gives the party invites the guests.

For Mrs. Post's booklet 501, "The Etiquette of Weddings," send 10 cents in coin and a 3-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope to her in care of Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. (Released By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Engagement Is Announced

For Mildred Cordes, Marlboro Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cordes of Marlborough have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mildred Cordes, to Staff Sgt. Robert A. Swithers, U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Swithers of Hunlock Creek, Pa. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Cordes is a graduate of Marlborough High School and has been employed in the office of St. Luke's Hospital. Sergeant Swithers is a graduate of Astoria High School, Astoria, L. I., and is now stationed in North Carolina.

'Alarming' Syphilis Increase Reported In New York State

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 15 (AP)—Case reports for early syphilis in upstate New York are 80 per cent above the average of prewar years, an official of the State Health Department says.

Dr. James H. Lade, director of the department's Division of syphilis control, termed the increase "alarming" in an article in the current issue of Health News, a department publication. The magazine was distributed yesterday.

Dr. Lade said the increase referred to case reports of syphilis of less than one year's duration. There were 196 cases of early syphilis reported during October, compared with 170 for the same month a year ago and a 1939-41 October average of 93.

"These dry figures reflect more than the tragedy inherent in a diagnosis of early syphilis," Dr. Lade wrote. "x x x for it is calculated that there are at least four undiscovered cases x x x for every one reported."

'Enryo' Is Reason Japanese Obey, Take New Order Slowly

By DUANE HENNESSY

Tokyo, Nov. 14 (AP)—You can lead a Japanese to a microphone—or a soapbox in the park—but you cannot always make him speak.

Despite their Allied-brought freedom of speech, the people of Nippon remain silent because of their deeply ingrained respect for authority and obedience, Col. Sidney F. Mashbir, head of the Allied translation and interpretation section, explained.

Mashbir said that giving the Japanese freedom of speech simply was a matter of issuing a direct order, but to get them to use this freedom to create a democracy was something else. It also is hard to get them to speak out in their relationship with the Allies.

"One of the causes of their reluctance is 'enryo,' which is a conception so characteristically Japanese that it cannot be translated by any single English word, but really is 'far-fetched thinking,'" Mashbir said.

Enryo really is a hesitancy. As a simple example, a Japanese wants to ask a favor but decides to keep the thought to himself, or he goes into a home where much food is on the table and hungrily wants to eat much, but restrains himself. Mashbir emphasized that the phrase commonly used by superiors to inferiors is "go enryo naku," which means without enryo or "don't think too long; don't hesitate."

But this phrase is ineffective because the inferior either is too shy or too polite to speak without careful thought," Mashbir said. "This means, he is very unlikely to express his real opinion or to give information which he feels a superior might find unpleasant."

Enryo prevents the Japanese people from effectively discussing their problems among themselves and stands in the way of any real expression of public opinion. It also makes the Japanese hesitant to make any recommendations or frankly discuss matters with Allied authorities.

Mashbir cited as an example complications in a recent order to the Japanese to furnish General MacArthur with a list of Japanese magazines and periodicals. The Japanese replied they had quit keeping such a list when the Allies abolished Japanese censorship of the press. They said they had foreseen that the Allies would want such a list; but when asked why they had not suggested that one be kept, they replied that they had not offered the suggestion because of enryo, who were they to suggest to Allied headquarters?

Partly because of enryo, no self-respecting Japanese will say what he really thinks to anyone he does not know well. If a stranger is a superior, the Japanese will attempt to give pleasing answers.

If a leading business man meets a governmental official, the official limits his discussion to the scope of his instructions. At the same time, the business man will be restrained by enryo from bringing up any questions or problems or from presenting any information that might not be considered pleasing or in good taste.

140 Golfers Start First Lap in Play On Mobile Links

By HENDRIX CHANDLER

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 15 (AP)—"Stop the amateurs" was the battle cry from the prosecution today as approximately 140 golfers, including some of the nation's foremost shotmakers, started out on the first lap of Mobile's inaugural $10,000 Azalea Open Golf Tournament.

The "money boys" were reinforced for this fourth stop on the P.G.A. winter circuit by additions of Jug McSpaden of Philadelphia and Ellsworth Vines of Denver, but they were minus the help of Slammin' Sammy Snead of Hot Springs, Va., who left the tour in Durham, N. C., this week for a rest.

The amateurs, on the other hand, picked up some substantial reinforcement of their own in the form of slender Freddy Haas of New Orleans, who stirred the golf world by breaking Byron Nelson's winning streak in Memphis several months ago.

The pros decided informally to do something about the situation after a pair of Simon Pures came through to win the last two tournaments on the current tour.

Favored to win the 72-hole competition were a trio of pros—Tony Penna of Dayton, O.; Dutch Harrison of Little Rock, Ark.; and Belton Bon Hogan of Hershey, Pa. The meet continues through Sunday.

Rickenbacker Is Out of Automobile Racing Business

Indianapolis, Nov. 15 (AP)—Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, a 70-mile-an-hour daredevil of the automobile tracks 30 years ago, will be only a visitor from the aviation business when the groundling speedsters compete next May 30 in their first 500-mile race since 1911.

"Rick" sold the two-and-a-half mile Indianapolis motor speedway yesterday to Anton Hulman Jr., Terre Haute, Ind., sportsman and financier, for a price reported unofficially as about $750,000. Rickenbacker bought the plant in 1927 for $700,000.

The colorful captain, who went back to automobiles after shooting down 21 German airplanes and five balloons in the first World War, had to make a choice between his first love and his job as president of Eastern Air Lines.

"The demands of running Eastern Airlines makes it impossible for me to give the speedyway the attention which it demands and it is fortunate that I am able to dispose of my interest to Mr. Hulman," Rickenbacker said.

Texas Town Sets Aside Day for Golf Star

Denton, Tex., Nov. 15 (AP)—Today is Byron Nelson Day in Denton and the greatest money winner in links history will be honored by his fellow citizens with an appreciation luncheon at which presidents of two colleges will pay him tribute.

Nelson has been working on his 50-acre farm near Denton, but will end his month-long vacation from the links December 14 when he rejoins the P. G. A. players in the Fort Worth Open.

Michael Clerkin, 105, attended the Magisterial sports meet recently at Carrieltown, Northern Ireland, and saw his son, Patrick, compete in the old age pensioners' race. Michael himself won that one 25 years ago. Also along was Patrick's son, Michael, with his wife and family. The four generations live together in a thatched house on a little farm at Lisagoan.

Baseball Writers Choose Cavaretta Most Valuable
New York, Nov. 15 (AP)—Phil Cavarretta of the Chicago Cubs, who hit an unofficial .353 during the past season and then whacked the ball for a 423 mark in the World Series against Detroit, has been voted the National League's most valuable player for 1945 by an overwhelming margin.

The 29-year-old first baseman received 15 first place votes, seven seconds and one fifth out of 24 ballots cast by a committee representing the Baseball Writers' Association. He will be the second recipient of the Kenesaw Mountain Landis memorial plaque, which first was awarded last year to Martin Marion, St. Louis Cardinals shortstop.

Cavarretta's total of 279 points out of a possible 336 placed him far in front of Tommy Holmes of the Boston Braves, who ran second with 173. The two battled for the National League batting championship most of the season, with Cavarretta winning out in the stretch.

Charley (Red) Barrett, St. Louis pitcher who won 28 games, placed third with 151 points, and Andy Pafko, Cubs centerfielder, was fourth with 131. George "Whitely" Kuroski of the Cardinals ran fifth with 90 points.

Catskill Mountain Deer Season Is Now Under Way

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 15 (AP)—The deer season in the Catskill Mountain area opens today with hunters assured of "almost perfect" forest conditions.

Conservation Commissioner Perry B. Duryeu said yesterday that rains this week had dampened the woods, eliminating the rustle of leaves and other noises likely to frighten game.

Westchester county fields and woods also were opened to deer hunters today but only to those using the long-bow.

The Catskill season extends through November 30 and that in Westchester through December 15.

Fulton county and central and western New York will have deer hunting from November 24 through 30, except on Sunday, November 25.

Duryeu said that the number of deer bagged in the Adirondack area to date was 398, three more than the corresponding period for last year. The season there opened last month and will continue through November 20.

Hamilton county led with 92 deer, Franklin and Herkimer were tied for second with 57 each. St. Lawrence was fourth highest with 56 and Essex was fifth with 50.

has been waged during the season which did not open until May because of the racing ban early in the year. The season was memorable because of the first $5,000,000 betting day in turf history. That occurred September 22 at Belmont.

New York Jewels Defeat Jersey Reds Here by 35-27

Only Fair Turnout Is on Hand for V.F.W. Games; Mass Win Over Legion

Before a fair turnout of fans, the New York Jewels defeated the Jersey Reds, 35-27, in the Veterans of Foreign Wars exhibition game at the municipal auditorium, Wednesday night.

Despite the presence of top-flight American League pro players in the lineups of both clubs, action seemed to lag and the crowd failed to wax as enthusiastic as cage turnouts used to in the days when Kingston was represented in league competition. Collegiate rules were used last night.

Leo Gottlieb led the Jewel point scorers with 10 markers, glanced on five shots from the field, while Bobby Tough of the defeated Jersey Reds topped the individual honors of the night, caging six dimes and a foul for 13 points.

Kevin Connors, first baseman of the Kingston Recreation ball club, playing guard on the Jersey five, scored from one field and twice from the charity stripe.

Mike Bloom, giant center, who usually is a scoring mainstay for the Reds, was stopped in his tracks, failing to cage any shots from scrimmage. He had to be satisfied with a lone foul.

After the game William Jordan, activities chairman for Joyce-Schrick Post, 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, said he was uncertain as to whether the V.F.W. would continue with future cage attractions. "We'll announce our plans after a meeting," he said.

There was no profit in last night's game. Preliminary to the main go, the Kingston American Legion team, 35-27, Charlie Bock and Bill Houghtaling led the Kingston team with 10 and 8 points respectively.

Occupation Is Praised

Tokyo, Nov. 15 (AP)—Benjamin H. Gordon, U. S. Department of Commerce representative, said today that the Allied occupation of Japan is the most efficient action of its kind in history. Interviews with officers and men in 40 bases "have satisfied me that the job was and is being done well," he told newsmen. He is touring the Pacific to familiarize servicemen with economic conditions they may expect to encounter when they return home.

125 Cagers Report to Kias To Try for Berths on Varsity

With the football season drawing to a close next Thursday afternoon in the traditional Kingston-Newburgh Thanksgiving contest, activity at Kingston High School is making a switch toward basketball. Practice started November 1 with 125 candidates answering the call of Coaches G. Warren Kias and Jim Tobin.

With only one varsity man returning from last year's DUSO runnup, Coach Kias is depending upon last year's sub-varsity and Jayvee squads to form the nucleus of this year's varsity. Tony Albany, all-DUSO forward of last year who was third in league scoring, is the only veteran on the squad, and he is expected to be the nucleus of the 1945-46 team. Three sub-varsity members, Bob Murray, Ed Weaver and Bob Miller are also among the candidates for a position on the first five.

Among those considered for varsity posts are Ed McCordle, George Glaser, Bob Gheer, Harry Koch, Ken Lowe, and several others. Gene Fitzgerald and Len Siskier, who quit in mid-season last year, are expected to make another try.

"We certainly had a fine turnout," Coach Kias told the press, "but, of course, we have had to cut the squad. It's too early yet to say how the boys look, for with some of the squad still out for football, we just don't know how they will shape up."

When asked about the DUSO League as a whole, Kias commented, "Middletown, with its first ten men of last year returning, looks like the best bet. However, don't count Monticello and Newburgh out, for they're reported to have good squads."

Although the complete schedule is not yet ready for release, it is known that the Maroon and White cagers will open the season December 14 at the municipal auditorium with Middletown, furnishing the opposition in a DUSO contest. Hal Wagner has returned to coach the Middies who were piloted to their first league title in history by Coach MacVittie last season.

Heavy Ticket Sale For Ahavath Ball Thanksgiving Eve

There will be a capacity attendance at the Congregation Ahavath Israel Thanksgiving Eve Ball at the municipal auditorium next Wednesday night. It is indicated by the sale of tickets for the event featuring Johnny "Seal" Davis and his band.

Tickets are on sale by members of the congregation and at three convenient points. Sunday drug store on Wall street; H. G. Rafalowsky's clothing store, Broadway and Thomas street, and Goldman's Style Shop, lower Broadway.

Chairman Rafalowsky, who as entertainment and music chairman of the ball in past years, hopes to make a new record with the "Seal" Davis orchestra, and the show he's co-features with it. Rafalowsky picked the Davis band because of its notoriety, the ensemble having played over the various major networks and in the movies. Sally Lang and Danny Baxter are the soloists with the band.

Prior to going in for wedding his own baton, "Seal" was with Red Nichols and his Five Pennies, and with Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians. He was the vocalist and lead trumpet man for the latter over a period of seven years.

While Davis was with Waring he played in "Varsity Show," the movie that gave him his start in Hollywood, where he remained to work in nine other pictures, "Hollywood Hotel," "Cowboy from Brooklyn," "Mister Champ," and "You Can't Ration Love," being among them.

The full program will be announced shortly and as soon as it appears publicly, ticket sales are bound to skyrocket, Chairman Rafalowsky anticipates. There'll be a real good time at the ball, he promises.

Hirsch Is Sentenced

New York, Nov. 15 (AP)—Bald, 43-year-old Murray Hirsch was sentenced to five to eight years in Sing Sing prison for his part in the 1942 strangulation of Mrs. Susan Florida Reich. Two other defendants already have been electrocuted and a third sentenced to life imprisonment. General Sessions Judge Jonah J. Goldstein heard a plea for "extreme leniency" by Assistant District Attorney Jacob Grumet before passing sentence. Grumet told the court that Hirsch readily confessed and implicated the others, subsequently acting as a state witness in their trials. Hirsch pleaded guilty last March to a first-degree manslaughter charge. He has been a prisoner for three and a half years and now will be eligible for parole in another year.

Paratroop Officer Gets Real Break From Hotel Head

Dreams of Civilian Luxury Won't Cost Man and Family Red Cent in New York

New York, Nov. 15 (AP)—A soldier's foxhole dreams of stateside luxury... that big, soft bed... those steaks... milk and ice cream... soft music... more steaks all of them come true today for paratroop Captain Frank L. Lillyman of Skaneateles, N. Y.

For two years, through five operations and three hospitalizations, Lillyman dreamed as did his fellow soldiers. He made notes, so that no choice morsel would escape his memory when the time came to go home. He thought of his wife and how she liked flowers... of three-year-old Susan Jane, who should have more dolls, more toys. He set aside $300, a few dollars now, a few later.

A few weeks ago in Germany, the word came that he was going back. He put his dream notes together and wrote a letter to the manager of the Pennsylvania Hotel.

"I desire a suite that will face the east so the sun will wake me up in the morning," he wrote. "Each morning I will want a cup of English-made tea served to me in bed... and I will want three meals a day... my breakfast in the suite, with a suitable menu for my daughter, the noon meal likewise, but the evening meal available either in your dining room or in my suite."

Life said he did not want to be called by his military rank... "the title of 'Mister' will be music to my ears." He enumerated other details of his dream program, and asked:

"(1) Can you do it? (If you cannot, it is all right...)"

"(2) How much will it cost? (I'm a Captain, not a General.)"

The Pennsylvania Hotel manager, James H. McCabe, wrote Lillyman that everything he asked could be done, that it would cost "not one red cent."

Lillyman was the first paratrooper to land on European soil on D-Day. He, his wife and his daughter left their Skaneateles home this morning in the family car and were expected in New York city late this afternoon.

Special Prizes Are Given at Michael School

Among those participating in the Armistice Day program at which School Wednesday were from left, Thomas Bohan, Morton Finch, Don Libby Warshaw, winner of the American Legion History Gold Medal; Frank Meagher, principal of the Myron J. Michael School.

Special Program Is Held at School

Armistice Day Observed, Prizes Distributed at Michael School

A special Armistice Day program was held and the presentation of English and history prizes was made at Myron J. Michael School Wednesday. Special guests from the Kingston Post, 150, American Legion, were Henry J. Fisher, the Rev. Clarence E. Brown, Thomas Bohan, Morton Finch, James R. Murphy and Joseph Sills.

The American Legion history prize, presented by Eugene B. Carey, past commander, was awarded to Miss Libby Warshaw, with honorable mention to Miss Ann Sheehan and Miss Anna Fabiano.

Arthur J. Laidlaw, superintendent of schools, presented the Myron J. Michael English prize to Miss Rose Saccoman with honorable mention to Miss Helen Kline and Rodney Wells.

Sons of Veterans of World War I were the guard of honor: Edward Trombly, Robert Cronk and Donald Sweeney. The M.J.M. School orchestra also participated and the patriotic songs, "Star Spangled Banner" and "America" were sung.

In making the history prize presentation, Mr. Carey spoke as follows:

Following is the address of Eugene B. Carey, Past Commander of Kingston Post 150 American Legion, when he presented the American Legion History prize to Miss Libby Warshaw of the Myron J. Michael School.

Last Sunday and Monday the nation honored those who fell on two and in the Battle of Central Germany, as well as the dead of Chateau Thierry and the Argonne Forest, marking the 27th anniversary of the cessation of hostilities in World War I.

A world seething in unrest and groping blindly in uncertainty greets the dawn of today, as we look towards the 28th Armistice Day. The victorious nations are pausing in triumph. The defeated are lying prostrate at our feet. They are looking to us for mercy, for help. It is the same picture, but greatly enlarged to include the broad expanse of the Pacific Ocean, that we veterans of World War I gazed upon on November 11, 1918.

The American Legion, numbering about 2,000,000 men and women and 13,000 individual posts of which Kingston Post is a part, was born following Armistice Day 27 years ago. There is no organization with higher ideals than the American Legion. It is composed of the patriotic minded men and women who have borne arms in defense of their flag and country.

The men and women, including your principal Colonel Meagher, who marched away to war in 1917 and 1918 returned to civilian life with a rekindled love for their native Kingston, appreciating the fact that solemn obligations and responsibilities rested upon them as individuals. The men and women of World War II are doing the same. In furtherance of the objectives for which they fought 28 years ago, these men organized the American Legion as the vehicle to put their program into practical operation and use.

The American Legion was organized, according to the preamble of its constitution, for ten useful, unselfish purposes, one of which was "to foster and perpetuate a 100 per cent Americanism." One part of that purpose is to interest the youth of America in the study of our country and its economy.

To help you boys and girls of Kingston do that, Kingston Post in 1920, and continuously since, offered a prize to the student who obtained the highest average in the examination in American History. I know that competition has been strong at times for the prize. At one time the post had to present two prizes, the judges being unable to determine the better of two perfect papers.

executive committee is seeking to spur action on various issues.

None of the conference committees, Taylor said at a news conference, has started to work yet on three important problems. He listed these as (1) recommendations for machinery to handle disputes where collective bargaining has failed; (2) definition of collective bargaining needed to back up conference decisions.

A definition of collective bargaining is deemed necessary because of recent complaints of both labor and management that one or the other fails really to talk out the difficulties involved.

Given to Schwellenbach

Knowland's suggestion on the wage issue was submitted to Schwellenbach in the hope, the Senator said, that the cabinet officer might find it helpful in preventing a fatal delay in rapid reconversion.

Under the California's proposal, labor and management would agree to an initial increase of perhaps 10 per cent and then negotiate a "leeway" for a possible additional raise. "This in the case of the auto workers might be the balance of the 30 per cent they are asking, or a 20 per cent leeway. Any additional raise, however, would be paid out only as it was earned by industry."

Yearly bargaining conferences would be held to estimate the coming year's business and to agree on a division of income among workers, management, stockholders and consumers.

The latter, Knowland said in a letter to the labor secretary, would be "in the form of lower prices which might advance the general prosperity of the company and bring larger returns to all in subsequent years."

A final wage settlement, based on actual profit, would come at the end of the production year.

Schwellenbach had no immediate comment on Knowland's letter.

As for the troubled steel industry, the statement that the government cannot accede to the full price increase demand came from

Eisenhower Favors Training

Washington, Nov. 15 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told Congress today "Russia has no slightest thing to gain by war with the United States" and wants to be a friend.

He added that "there will never be a war between Great Britain and the United States."

Testifying in support of President Truman's request for universal military training, Eisenhower told the House Military Committee:

"I believe Russia's policy is friendship with the United States. There is in Russia a desperate and continuing concern for the lot of the common man and they want to be friends with the United States."

The general said he knew that some Russians are concerned over criticism of the Soviets by the United States press. But he added "It is difficult" for Russians to understand a free press as it operates in the United States.

His references to the possibility of war with Great Britain or Russia were made in response to questions by committee members, principally Rep. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) who asked:

"Who do we have as potential aggressors?"

Eisenhower would not specify any nation because he could not foretell international developments adding "that years ago none thought we would be at war with Germany or Japan."

Right now, he said, "there is no one nation in the world that can challenge a prepared America."

The average freighter carrying men and materials to the Pacific war theater used as much as 10,000 gallons of fuel oil daily—enough to heat the average American home for six years.

The World Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Danger signals fly high over shattered Germany as winter closes in with its stark hunger and other privations which hold their threat of revolt.

This crisis finds Allied administration falling short of full efficiency, due largely to France's inability to agree with numerous measures until assured that her Allies will support her proposal for international control of the Ruhr and French occupation of the Rhineland. This divergence is now under discussion between America and France in Washington. John M. Hightower, AP diplomatic news editor, also reports strong indications that President Truman and Secretary of State Byrnes are about ready to review the American administration in Germany.

Apologies of this critical situation I have a letter from an old friend—a trained observer—now in Germany. He writes largely of the all-important relationship between conquerors and conquered, and here's what he says in part:

"It is a strange feeling to move unarmed among the would-be conquerors of the world. A few months ago they would have attacked you as an enemy. Now some look away, some are curious, many have a cold impersonal look in their eyes—partly wounded pride at defeat, partly preoccupation with the pressing cares of food and fuel for the winter.

"From many of the young element you get a hard look behind which seems to lurk a slyly hatred, as though you had robbed them of their future. These feelings feel that we have knocked the bottom out of their lives and taken away the inspiration of a great cause to live for without replacing it with a comparable challenge.

Jealousy. To be toppled from would-be conquerors of the world to unemployed citizens of a ruined, curved-up country is a big jolt for them.

"The youth group are naturally the most indoctrinated with Nazi ideas. Trouble is expected from them this winter.

"In some cases attacks on U. S. personnel have occurred, focusing around 'fraternization.' Returned prisoners of war in their Wehrmacht clothes tend to hang around with young civilians at street corners. Anti-American feeling is being subtly fostered.

"Nearly half the young men and three-quarters of the young women think the best thing for Germany would be a 'strong new ruler.' In this way they revive hope in their hearts for Germany's bleak future. The more critical conditions get, the more likely they are to turn to new totalitarian solutions.

"Germany is paying a heavy price for her love of domination. Yet I doubt if her people have had sufficient education in fair play or in governing themselves.

"Somewhere in the German soul there still lurks that tribal paganism—the forests for people are an easy prey to any ideology that lures them with appeals to their love of order, organization and forceful leadership. It should be one of our top priority jobs to see that the right ideology, which can direct Germany's energies into constructive channels, gets to her people in time.

"Hitler was never blind to the power of ideas. But we underestimate mental explosives. Technically brilliant and up-to-date in invention and production, we are mediocre in our ideological weapons, in their development and in training our people to use them.

"As a result we (the Allies) are not making the impression we should."

'Elopers' Are Back At Their Homes

Mrs. Deveny Says She Will Marry Sonny; His Mother Balks

Los Angeles, Nov. 15 (AP)—Ellsworth (Sonny) Wisecarver, 16-year-old former Merchant Seaman, and Mrs. Eleanor Deveny, 24, wife of an Army Corporal stationed in Japan and the mother of two children, were back home today after authorities ended their elopement in northern California.

The comely Mrs. Deveny, reunited with her two small sons, said she hoped to marry Sonny if she could get a divorce from Cpl. John Deveny. She described the youth as the kind of a man "every girl dreams about but seldom finds."

Wisecarver, who had been on probation since he eloped two years ago with another married woman, Mrs. Elaine Monfred, came back from Oroville, Calif., in the custody of his father. The boy's mother, Mrs. Mildred Wisecarver, says he's not going to marry Mrs. Deveny.

"My sympathy is all with this girl's husband," she told newsmen, "although I'm of the opinion now that Sonny is the aggressor in these love affairs. I was inclined to believe Mrs. Monfred when he eloped with her. He was only 14 then. But he's not going to get married. He's too young and Mrs. Deveny's too old for him, and anyway, she's married."

Mrs. Deveny told reporters she met the Wisecarver lad 10 days before they decided to take a trip with the $85 she said her husband sent her. They left her children with a friend at nearby Long Beach and told other guests at a party they were going in search of sandwiches.

Wisecarver gave himself up when he read in a newspaper at Oroville that he was wanted, but
